ELECTRIC DISPLAY

At the

New Palais Royal,

G and Eleventh Streets.

Washington's new store in holiday dress and illuminated by electricity will be a display worth seeing. If you should visit here tonight you will doubtless meet some of your friends. Everyone meets at The Palais Royal.

Bring the children to see Santa Claus dress the Christmas tree.

LADIES who feel disposed to try on the new Wraps that will be displayed on the third floor will be delighted with the style and it greatly surprised at the prices. The manufacturer's loss enables us to offer Jackets from $7.50 to $27.50 that were made to retail from $12.50 to $50. Among the Waists are those of cashmere in black and colors at $1.45 instead of $2.98 each.

"SEALSKINS"—Capas looking like the very expensive garments are here from $15.50 to $27.50. Worth up to $40 each.

"GRETCHENS"—Nearly half usual prices for these children's cloth garments. Sizes 4 to 14 years. $6.98 to $8.98 instead of from $12 to $16.

FURS—The Ladies' Electric Seal Capas from $18 to $33.75 are worth up to $50 and Best Quality Mink Collarettes are $2.98 instead of $4.50. Children's Angora Skirts at $1.98, $2.25 and $3.75. Worth up to $15.

A PRON—Literally thousands of Aprons from 9c to $2.98 each—13c for India Lawn Aprons with satin stripes, ruffling, tucks and plain hem; 38 inches long, 48 inches wide.

19c for Aprons for nurse, the chambermaid, the cook and the mistress. Eleven styles to choose from—19c for Aprons that are extra good value at 25c each.

33c for choice of the 50c Aprons, included among which are the Imported Embroidered Swiss Aprons. The shirred bands invite ribbon trimmings, when the Apron will look worth $1.

71c for the Children's 98c Aprons, in sizes 2 to 14 years. Some with colored and white embroidery, others with ruffles of lace.

PICTURES on this third floor for 8c, 9c and $1.25 that some merchants would call worth $5. Others from $2.50 to $7.50 that are sometimes advertised as worth $20 and $25.

SECOND FLOOR BARGAIN SPOTS.

TO the left hand as you step off the elevator is the Stationery Department. Writing Paper and Envelopes in suitable boxes for Christmas presents at only 10c, 15c and 25c. Bargains because the boxes are attractive and contain only the best paper. Name on Fifty Cards from engraved copper plate, with dainty satin case, all for 86c.

DOLLS—Thousands to choose from. Perhaps the best bargains are the Bique Dolls at 67c each. They are eighteen inches high, jointed limbs, have long flowing hair, lovely eyes, perfect teeth, bright eyes, the sweetest looking Dolls imaginable.

DRESSES—A dress length of 50c Wool Suitings for only $1.98. Dress patterns of $1 and $1.25 Novelty Suitings for only $4.83. Only 98c for ten-yard patterns of 12 1/2c Gingham.

FIRST FLOOR BARGAIN SPOTS.

STOP near the door of the Eleventh street entrance and look at the Men's and Ladies' Warranted All-line Handkerchiefs offered at 13c each. Only 50c for four of them in suitable box for presentation.

TURN around and you'll find the Men's Silk Scarfs at 48c each—a combination that includes many worth 98c and 75c.

THE Umbrella Department adjoins. Nestling among the thousands of Umbrellas and Canes are these bargains: Ladies' Princess of Wales Cook Handled Silk Umbrella, with sterling silver trimmings, $2.48, but worth $3.98 each. Guaranteed for one year. Recovered free of charge if they split. And look over the combination lot of Men's and Ladies' Umbrellas at $5, $7 and $9 each. Not a few worth from $10 to $16.

MORE of these China Silks at 25c instead of 30c a yard, so that all shades will be on the bargain table near elevator. Companion bargains a few steps away—5c instead of 10c yard for 1-inch wide Satin and G. G. Silk Ribbons that are warranted all silk and in all the art shades. 1c instead of 15c yard for those 1 1/2 inches wide.

BUT let us first look at the contents of the other three bargain tables near the elevator. The table filled with Men's Scarfs at 25c for choice includes many made of silks you have never before seen in scarfs at less than 50c. The table filled with Christmas Aprons includes at 10c three styles heretofore sold at 25c. The last table is filled with Silk Covered Pillows and Head Rests at reduced prices.

WHERE the Laces used to be are Brice-a-Brae bargains: 50c for Large Sized Bique Figures that would be cheap at $1, and 80c for Vases that were $1. A few hundred Souvenir Cups and Saucers from Limoges, France, are here from $1 to $3.50, positively worth from 25c to 45c.

STOP at the little counter to right of G street entrance and secure more or less of those French Plaid Silk Windows at 14c instead of 25c each.

BEHIND you is the department for Silk Stockings. The bargains here are: 50c pair for $1.25 quality Ribbed and Plain Silk Hosiery, $1.29 for $1.68 quality Stockings, in fast black and perfect assortment of evening shades, 44c a pair for 75c Garters, with handsome clasp and bow.

MORE Handkerchiefs to left of the G street entrance. Thousands of Japanese Silk, Plain and Embroidered. The bargains are the Ladies' Sealed and Embroidered Handkerchiefs at 21c each, or 5 for $1. For men are Full-size Handkerchiefs, with artistically embroidered initial, only 60c each.

OF course you'll find the usual crowd at the Jewelry Department. The reason: Silver and Enamel Dagger Pins, with chain and scabbard, 25c instead of 68c; Gold Rings, with marquis turquoises setting, 45c instead of $1; Real Shell Hair Pins, 68c instead of $1; Imitation Shell Pins, 17c instead of 25c.

ANOTHER Handkerchief bargain if you turn around and look—18c for Ladies' and Men's Warranted Pure Linen Handkerchiefs that are well worth 25c. Three in a box for only 50c. Only 10c each for Men's Initial Handkerchiefs. They look like those that sell at 50c each.

STOP at the table in the aisle as you leave the Handkerchief Department and look at the Table Writing Tablets reduced from 98c to 80c. Note also that the Pocket Books, with sterling silver trimmings, are also reduced to 80c. Some of those of alligator, seal and Russian leather were $1.25. None were less than 98c.

25 per cent discount is on the sign you will see as you enter the Japanese Goods Department. You'll soon learn this is not an advertising dodge with no real meaning, as are some of the announcements you may have read.

TOYS, Games, Candy, Lamps, China Ware and Housefurnishing Goods comprise the basement four departments. Do not leave the store without going "down stairs." If tired ask for an invigorating cup of chocolate with whipped cream
